

in partnership with

MvskokeFund
Community Development Corporation

Friday NOON ZOOM

12 PM - 1 PM

Online training to help grow your business. Receive expert advice regarding best practices and engage with guest business coach and other Native Small Business Owners.

Lisa Wagner
Featured guest

Lisa Wagner is an economic development consultant and trainer based in Buffalo, Wyoming. She has worked in small business and economic development for 22 years. Over the last 10 years, Lisa has worked in Native communities across the nation providing small business training and tribal economic development consulting. She has served as a trainer and facilitator for First Nations Oweesta, NeighborWorks America and Opportunity Finance Network. Services have included strategic planning, business planning, financial projections and analysis, and providing support for organization sustainability planning and practices. Lisa was the founding Executive Director of the Wind River Development Fund, a successful small business loan fund on the Wind River Indian Reservation in Wyoming, from 2001 until 2009. In 2009, Lisa was recognized by the U.S. Small Business Administration as the Wyoming Financial Services Champion of the year. She received her B.A. in Economics from the University of Colorado and an M.B.A. from the University of Texas.

Hosted by Pete Upton

Executive Director
(308) 850-0303 | pete@native360.org

Co-hosted by Christopher Coburn

(918) 549-2603 | ccoburn@mcn-nsn.gov

"90-Day Financial Scenario Analysis"

During uncertain times it can be impossible to predict out profits and cash flow for 12 months. With this tool, focus in on 3 months at a time. The tool allows you to compare side-by-side scenarios to better understand profits, break-even, and cash flow based on % of sales.

TO REGISTER

Sign up at native360.org/registration. Registration closes at 12:00 pm on the Thursday prior to the event.

Visit native360.initiateprosperity.org/create-account to sign up for a free account in our online business building center with over 100 business building tools.

